

My educational journey

I was 10 years old when I started to learn music in Music School in my home town. I had played the flute for 2 years, then once I tried the saxophone and I fell in love with it. After 2 years practice and study I got a chance to play in an orchestra. And now since 2006 I have been playing in the Hajdúböszörményi Youth Wind Instruments Orchestra.

